Pathashala – Nepalese Language & Culture Centre (NLCC) is a non-profit, volunteer-driven, community language and culture centre that works for the benefit of the children in the Nepalese community in Brisbane. The Centre currently operates under the umbrella of the Nepalese Association of Queensland (NAQ) Inc. For further information, please visit www.naq.org.au.

Please Note:

- 1) The Centre will endeavour to ensure a safe and secure environment for learning for students through available resources.
- 2) Classes will be held in locations deemed suitable for educational services and venues will be disclosed in advance. However, change in venue or time due to unforeseen events (or conflict with other key event dates) will be communicated to parents/students as and when they occur.
- 3) Children will not be involved in any activities of dangerous nature. The Centre reserves the right to confiscate dangerous or forbidden items that may pose risk to the Centre community.
- 4) In case of a medical emergency, the conventional emergency services as determined by the Centre will be called upon as required.
- 5) It is a condition of enrolment that both the parent/guardian and the student must comply with all policies, rules and the code of conduct of the Centre.
- 6) The Centre requires that all donations (and other contribution for extra-curricular activities that may be applicable from time to time) will be promptly contributed.
- 7) The Centre or the Nepalese Association of Queensland (NAQ) does not accept any liability for damages of any nature sustained by individuals because of his/her participation at the Centre/Pathashala
- 8) Please deposit the correct contribution (such as $100/child/term) in NAQ bank account (BSB 064011, account 10140095. Please provide reference such as: NLCC_child's name)

I agree to abide by the terms and conditions as set out above and in the Nepalese Language and Culture Centre (NLCC) - Pathashala Policy Document.
